Dear Licensees:

Greetings from Sacramento! The Board of Chiropractic Examiners (Board) has important news for you.

This letter informs you that the Board recently received regulatory authority to assess fines of up to $5,000 for violations of any laws or regulations governing the practice of chiropractic. This regulatory action becomes effective on August 1, 2008. You may view the entire cite and fine regulatory package by accessing our web site at www.chiro.ca.gov.

Our web site contains a wealth of information for consumers and licensees. You can find information on license renewal, enforcement information, and approved continuing education courses. Additionally, we invite you to join our e-mail list, which you can find on our web site. This will significantly help reduce costs and you will receive important information and news much more rapidly than via regular mail.

The Board wants to ensure that all licensees are informed and understand the laws and regulations that govern chiropractic. We encourage you to attend Board and Committee meetings and occasionally browse our web site to stay current. Over the next several months, the Board plans to file additional regulatory packages that will further protect consumers.

If you have any questions about the new cite and fine regulation, please contact us at (916) 263-5355 or via e-mail at chiro.info@chiro.ca.gov.

Sincerely,
