Memorandum

Date: August 28, 2008

To: Continuing Education Committee
   Board of Chiropractic Examiners

Via: Brian Stiger
      Executive Officer

From: John Melendez
      Licensing and Continuing Education

Subject: Continuing Education Approval Process

This memorandum is intended to describe the current Continuing Education Course approval process.

Within 21 days of receipt, the Licensing Analyst completes a comprehensive review of the documentation submitted by the approved continuing education course provider.

During the initial phase of the review, the Licensing Analyst ensures the following required documents and information have been received:

- Course Syllabi
- Completed Course Application
- Hour By Hour Course Outline
- Course Dates and Locations
- Brochure-Promotional Materials
- Sample Certificate of Completion
- Instructors and Corresponding Hours of Instruction
- Number of Continuing Education Hours Requested

Throughout the initial phase of the evaluation process, the Licensing Analyst verifies the accuracy and consistency of the information provided.

During the second phase of the evaluation process, the Licensing Analyst utilizes all available resources to perform a detailed analysis of the course content in order to ensure that the course information to be presented is fully consistent with established chiropractic scope of practice parameters. In the event a question or concern arises during this phase, the Licensing Analyst may consult with a licensed chiropractor for clarification. The consultation and clarification methodology has been further enhanced through the availability and utilization of fully vetted and trained chiropractic experts.

Following completion of the evaluation process, the Licensing Analyst provides written notification of course approval or denial. Should a course be denied, the provider is fully advised of the established appeal process.

There appear to be numerous benefits to the current continuing education approval process when compared to the previous process. These benefits include the following:

- The establishment of a timely appeal process which allows the provider to present an appeal to the Executive Officer.
- An expedited approval process resulting in a sixty-five percent reduction in approval process time when compared to the prior process (i.e. 21 days versus 60 days).
- Substantial reduction of the pre-course course submission timeframe as provider course submission is no longer required to be completed 30 days prior to the Board meeting.
- A significant reduction in staff time previously devoted to the completion of committee worksheets and written rationale for course approval, denial or reduction of approved hours; as well as the resources required to copy-mail course applications and attachments to Committee Members for review.
- The Continuing Education Committee is no longer burdened with performing an extensive and time consuming review process thereby allowing the devotion of additional time to establishing continuing education policy.
- Alleviation of potential conflict of interest issues upon appeal to the Board.
- Elimination of the previously required provision of handouts and lecture notes by providers.

Since the implementation of the revised approval process approximately one year ago, there has been no evidence that a continuing education course has been inappropriately approved.

Moreover, the appeal process has been effective in resolving disputed course denials. Of the four appeals received and heard by the Executive Officer, two resulted in course approval while the remaining two appeals resulted in confirmed denials. There have been no appeals beyond the Executive Officer level to date.

Subject: Continuing Education

This provides the Continuing Education Committee a brief update on the Continuing Education Project.

Following the last Continuing Education Committee meeting on April 24, 2008, we established a diverse work group comprised of individuals representing professional associations, chiropractic colleges, and continuing education providers, doctors of chiropractic, and board staff to reform the Board’s continuing education (CE) program.

The work group plans to complete its initial re-write of the chiropractic regulations within the next few weeks and submit a comprehensive regulatory package to the Board at the September meeting. The work group’s proposed recommendations include but are not limited to the following:

- Increase the CE hours from the current 12 to the proposed 24
- Permit licensees to earn up to 12 hours of CE through distance learning courses
- Allow licensees to choose from a menu of courses contained in four different categories
- Establish 50 minute hour to allow course providers the flexibility to schedule break times as appropriate
- Calculate application fees based the number of CE hours requested

The work group will be meeting on September 9, 2008, in Sacramento to resolve a few outstanding issues and finalize the recommendations. A final draft will be presented to the committee by September 19, 2008.

If you have any questions regarding this project, please feel free to contact me at your earliest opportunity.
