

BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS (BCE)
DENIAL OF LICENSE APPLICATION APPEAL PROCESS

What can I do if my license is denied?

You have the right to request a hearing if you are notified that your license application has been denied. You must appeal a denial within 60 days after service of the notice of denial by requesting in writing that you wish to have a hearing on the denial. Please send your request to Board of Chiropractic Examiners, Attn: Licensing Unit., 2525 Natomas Park Drive, Suite 260, Sacramento, CA 95833-2931

If you do not request a hearing within the 60-day period, your right to a hearing is deemed waived. The earliest date you may reapply is two (2) years from the date of BCE's denial.

What should I expect after I send in my request for a hearing?

Upon receipt of the request, BCE will forward the information to the Department of Justice, Office of Attorney General to process the case, prepare a Statement of Issues, and schedule a hearing. You will be notified of the time and place of the hearing.

You may have legal representation at the hearing. BCE will be represented by the Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General. A decision will be made after the hearing. If the denial is upheld, the earliest date you may reapply is two (2) years from the effective date of the decision.

Where can I find the law that applies to the application appeal process?

You have the right to a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Please visit the web site of the Office of Administrative Hearings to view this law.
